Deaf Humor of the Week:

You demonstrate your speechreading abilites to the world. A guy says Wednesday and you think he says windy. He says Thursday and you think he says thirsty and invite him to a bar for a drink.

Announcements:

We are missing a very expensive wheelchair. This was borrowed last January and has not been returned to us. We are also missing two sets of crutches and a heating pad.

Please return these items ASAP so that all students can benifit from their use. Thanks! Cherrie Coffey, Health Center

Parents and staff: The PTCO Day raffle tickets are now being distributed via mail. Please look for them and sell the tickets as soon as possible. Return the stubs and money to Wanda Kirby, raffle chairperson, PTCO/ISD.

I have a job lead for someone who knows how to operate a sewing machine. It is a full time position on the northwest side of town. The hours are 8:00-5:00 p.m. and the pay starts at $5.00 or more depending on experience. If you would like more information, please contact Donna Stutler at extension 413 in the Supported Employment Center.

On Friday, March 1st from 9-3 p.m. Eight interpreters in the public school system will be visiting ISD from Champaign, Illinois. Their visit will include a presentation from our Bi/Bi Coordinators and two panel discussions on the Deaf Community and Interpreter Roles/Issues. Please contact Mary Alice Moon (Ext. 195) or Diane Hazel Jones (Ext. 128) for details.

Due to the very small response to the proposed High School Open House on Sunday, March 3, 1991, from 2:00 to 6:00 p.m., it has been postponed. The high school, vocational, HPER, and homecare departments will sponsor an open house on PTCO Day, May 5, 1991 from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. More details will follow.

Bob Kovatch, HS Supervising Teacher

The committee to write the position paper has not yet been set up. Therefore we will not have a meeting Monday, March 4. Later we will contact everyone who has volunteered for the committee and set up a meeting date. If you have not yet volunteered and would like to serve on this committee, please let us know immediately.

Judy Cass/David Reynolds, Mission Statement Co-chairpersons

During the week of March 4-9, Ann Reifel will set up ASL classes for educational and residential staff. Information on class schedule and place of instruction will be distributed among department heads. Classes will begin on Monday, March 11th. For more information, please see or call Ann on Ext. 198.

Statewide Tornado drill on Thursday, March 7th between 3-5 p.m.
